

This class is an open studio class where students will have the to opportunity to work on any piece of their choosing. Students are asked to bring any supplies they may need to work on their individual project. Easels will be available.